

DECISION SUPPORT ANALYST

The Decision Support Analyst provides analytical consulting assistance to the administrative and managerial staff of the hospital and subsidiaries. This position will be responsible to help improve financial and operational performance throughout the hospital. They will be expected to identify opportunities for performance improvement based on payor, physician, departmental and/or service line analysis. In addition this position will participate in cost accounting, budgeting, and reimbursement initiatives as necessary. The Decision Support Analyst will provide financial support for management, including but not limited to analysis of service lines, physician performance, quality improvement activities, financial statements, flex budget analysis/reporting, budgeting, RVU calculations and other financial needs.

Qualifications/Experience:

- Bachelor's degree in Administration/Business/Finance required.
- One to two years in health care related position, or Cost Accounting background preferred.
- Ability to quickly learn financial software products used. Expert in Microsoft Excel - experience with macros, pivot tables, functions and graphs preferred. Working knowledge of Microsoft Word and PowerPoint.

Qualified applicants can view our posting and apply online at www.stlukescr.org.

St. Luke's Hospital
1026 A Avenue NE
Cedar Rapids, IA 52406-3026
Web site: www.stlukescr.org